The Process of the Māori Data Sovereignty Framework Community led Researcher led Supporting element Supporting Declarations Project Kaupapa Formed with and dictared to He Whakaputanga Informs & Generation of ideas, projects, programmes backs Te Tiriti o Waitangi UNDRIP Represents the approach or the 'ask' of community involvement Data Sharing Agreement Informs & backs Continued Binding document to relationship, recognise sovereignty of the partnerships Kāhui Rangatira and uphold rights to self-determination and governance. Data Reporting Kāhui Rangatira The details of who is involved. when, and how data is Analysis, creation of outputs, Group of leaders from community collected. dissemination of results that will uphold data sovereignty and Creates will hold parties accountable if Signed and enforced by Kāhui Expression of identify. process is broken Dependent on Rangatira Sets the terms Guided by Council Order Articles Outlines how data is collected. Enforces Use of Data (From Data stored, and used Responsible for the protection of Sharing Agreement) approves data and has right to authorise use of Outlines rights of community data, decide if and how data is Right to edit, pull data and and individual participants in interpreted, and determine how the reports in perpetuity, dictate the process data is best communicated what knowledge can and can't be interpreted Kāhui Custodians Supports Helps implement project, support Point(s) of Creation Rights of Individuals & Expression of Sovereignty (Data Collection) Kāhui, communicate rights, information Authority starts and remains Data Storage on 'project' with individual participants, but Protect the integrity of the data (according protected by assurances set out to tikanga, kawa, and privacy laws) Enforce good by Kāhui Rangatira practice Data Access & Sharing Protective Tools Share in a manner that upholds the mana of Protected by the data's provenance and cultural Research information form Assurance significance and Non-disclosure agreement protection for Consent form participants

Legend